CHARGE OF HOUSEBREAKING.

Three Colored Men Arrested for Robbing a Chinaman. Daniel Newton, Curtis Williams and Wil-at the second police station on the charge of housebreaking in the night. It is alleged that they robbed Sam Kee's laundry, at 479 L street, Saturday night about 10 The Chinaman alleges that they took about $15. He has identified the men under arrest, and they will be given a hearing in Judge Kimball's court tomorrow. Sam Kee was in his laundry Saturday

Sam Kee was in his laundry Saturday night, ironing clothes, when he saw three colored men standing on the sidewalk conversing. One of them, whom he identifies as Newton, entered the laundry, and was soon followed by the others. They held him, he charges, and made a search of his premises. When they had taken what money they could find they left the place. Policemen Flather and O'Day were detailed on the case, and they succeeded in arresting the men mentioned.

The prisoners deny the charges against them, but they have been fully identified. This afternoon they were photographed for the gallery.

Moy Sam, a celestial, whose laundry is at 1529 15th street northwest, also had a call from robbers late Saturday night. His experience was even more exciting than that of his brother laundryman. Two colored men called at his place while he was resting himself, and they made him stay in bed while they searched for money. They found only about $2$, Sam told the police. He was so badly frightened that he screamed, and one of the men, he says, fired two shots at him. One of the builets passed through the covering on his bed. He found the pellet of lead and turned it over to the police. An effort is being made to apprehend the robbers.

SCHLEY HOME FUND.

Mr. James L. Norris Pays the Admiral a Tribute.

The Schley home fund is constantly being added to by subscriptions from all parts of the country. In a letter containing a contribution and recently received by the committee Mr. James L. Norris pays a tribute to Admiral Schley, in which he says in "The name of no more gallant gentleman adorns the roster of the American navy. Can we ever forget Commander Schley's perilous search for the lost Lieut. (now Brig. Gen.) Adolphus W. Greely and his party in 1883, or read the account of their meeting at 9 o'clock at night, June 22, 1884, in that desolate tent of Lieut. Greely, in the arctic region, where the black wing of death was stretched out over them and the prayes book—the last consolation of the dying—spen before them, without feeling the strongest emotions of which the human heart is capable? It was reserved for Commodore Schley, fifteen years later, in a sunnier clime, on a Sunday morning, while officers and men were at prayers, at the mouth of the harbor of Santiago, to furnish the companion piece to that thrilling picture of the arctic region. It was "The name of no more gallant gentleman the mouth of the harbor of Santiago, to furnish the companion piece to that thrilling picture of the arctic region. It was Commander Winfield Scott Schley who rescued Lieut. Greely and his party in the arctic region and it was Commodore Winfield Scott Schley who beached the Cristobal Colon sixty miles from Santiago, down the Cuban coast, and thus completing the destruction of the Spanish squadron."

CHEVY CHASE NEWS. Meeting of Library Association-Plan for a Building.

A well-attended meeting of the Library Association was held recently at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Porter. Miss Janet Richards, the president of the asso-ciation, occupied the chair. The executive committee reported that gratifying progress had been made toward securing site and the funds necessary for the erection of the building. A very desirable los has been tendered as a gift by the land company, which has also offered to cooperate in other ways. The committee was instructed to continue its efforts, and to so arrange matters that it may be possible in the near future to begin the erection of the building for the library. The association has accumulated several hundred volumes to form a nucleus for a library, which are now practically inaccessible because of the lack of the necessary reading room and library furniture.

Officers of the association for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Janet Richards; vice president, Mr. Verrell; secretary-treasurer, Miss Lillan Lewis, and librarian, Captain J. H. Pickell.

The church services conducted in the instructed to continue its efforts, and to Pickell.

The church services conducted in the building formerly occupied by the post office every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Childs of the Protestant Episcopal Church are now so fully attended that the vestry of the parish realizes that a larger place of worship must soon be provided, and preliminary steps have been taken toward that end. A lot has been donated by the land company and committees are at work perfecting the details necessary to be arranged prior to the building of a chapel. The Gulid of St. Agnes, composed of the ladies of the congrega-tion, is rendering valuable assistance in raising funds by means of entertainments, which are generously patronized by all which are generously patronized by all residents regardless of denomination.

The euchre club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chandlee. The prize winners were Mrs. J. Howard Fill and Mr. C. E. Dawson.

The young man, it is said, came here from Baltimere, and worked for the South-ern Railway Company. He boarded at Mrs. Grinder's house. Last Thursday, it is al-leged, Mrs. Grinder gave Redmiles 220 to pay her rent. She now charges that in-stead of paying the rent he went off with the daughter.
